1,000 WITNESS SUPERB WORK OF THE EAGLES' MINSTRELS

An aggregation of surprising hits, great ensemble numbers, orchestral talent, screamingly funny estral music that was a treat in its black faced comedians, amazing self, jokes sprung for the first time, dancers and novelty entertainers, with true minstrel aplomb, bubbling, transformed the Empire Theater, breezy, fun, dancing and burlesque Wednesday night into "Hilarity features, staged with the utmost skill" and achieved undying fame brilliancy and effectively spectacular in the realm of minstrelsy for the ular.

There wasn't a slow moment—everything moved off with a swing, the only delay occasioned by uproarious laughter and thunderous applause.

The curtain rose upon a fantastic minstrel scene, the semicircle of black faced minstrel men, in dress suits, with boutiniers of scarlet carnations, seated in a garden of fairy like beauty, its back ground latticed trellises of flowers and softly lighted by myriad Japanese lanterns.

As the opening chorus, a ringing medley of popular songs, split the air, six of the double quartet of brilliant end stars, came upon the scene in all the glory of black and white striped suits, flaunting green neckties, huge cabbage roses as boutiniers, and bravely keeping step to their tamborines.

Their charcoaled countenances glowing, their nimble tongues wagging and keeping up a hullabaloo of fun for the crowd, these end men certainly won the plaudits of the audience.

Perce Pearce started the ball rolling with a bunch of jokes. The most graceful of dancers and a clever comedian, he added to his other stunts a melodious tenor solo in one of the catchy end songs.

Every one of those end men shone in his role. "Hetty"—no one will forget Hetty—"Salubrious," side-splitting in get up and neither he nor "Big Ben" ever out of vision.

McBeth made a big hit with his song "When War Breaks Out in Mexico," and in his dance and stunts was one of the funniest and fastest of the comedians.

Katz would make any burlesque celebrity look to his laurels and was some mover, earning his title of "foot flingin' fool" in the eccentric dance which brought down the house.

Luke McLaughlin was sure one funny coon, evoking roars of laughter and Richard Collier excellent in his comedy character.

These end men kept up a running fire of jokes and songs between the beautiful ballads and choruses which rounded out the splendid ensemble part.

Rankin Paul, one of the most stunning of real minstrel dudes, sang a taking ballad "Just Because It's You," with rhythmic waltz chorus. Rankin's popularity was proved in the applause.

"Just a Dream of You, Dear," was extremely pretty, the solo sung by R. R. Kibler, whose tenor has contributed to the success of more than one minstrel performance in other cities as well as Washington.

Earl Binns lent his sweet tenor voice in "Dreams, Just Dreams," and a popular song was "I Didn't Raise My Boy to be a Soldier," splendidly sung by E. W. Harvey, with fine spirit in the chorus.

Billy Smith, who possesses an unusually fine voice, failed to do himself justice in the first verse of "When I Dream of Old Erin," but fully redeemed himself in the second verse and quartet chorus which brought one of the biggest encores of the evening.

Charles O. Updike was the very Prince of Interlocutors. In the costume, knickerbockers, frills and periwig of the Colonial gentleman, he was the personification of the part, taking his role with ease and ready wit.

It was the middle of the ensemble before the interlocutor announced the two end men stars, "Songbird Summers," and "Beef Bernhard," and there was something doing when they cakewalked in. Both were magnificent in scarlet and white striped suits, scarlet vests, the brightest of green ties and the biggest of diamonds.

That Summers was a "corker," a whole show in himself and became a local celebrity in one night. He was the typical, happy, rollicking minstrel artist, of truly professional attainments. A storm of applause after his song "The Little Ford That Rambled Right Along," brought him back again and again till he finally wound up with his own composition, "I've Got the Rheumatiz."

Louis Bernhard, who is really in the professional class, proved akin to a vaudeville entertainer, and was one high stepper.

The audience rose with the twenty seven performers, to wind up the ensemble with splendid volume in "The Star Spangled Banner," the folds of Old Glory waving in inspiration overhead.

The work of the chorus was throughout notably good, showing exceptional able training on the part of the musical director, Mr. Thos. P. Clancey, and the splendid orchestra, James J. Whelpley, leader, was one of the biggest factors in the success of the minstrels.

The first part was conducted in excellent professional style, the introductions of the end men made effectively and the ensemble well worked up to the climax.

The Otto was made up of entertaining specialty acts, introduced by Ray Smith in current topics.

Ralph Ott, who possesses rare talent as a whistler, delighted the audience with his whistling solos to orchestral accompaniment.

The Black Diamond quartet, Messrs W. J. Smith, Charles O. Updike, Edward O. Smith, Perce Pearce, proved immensely popular and C. E. Willson, "Military Coon," provoked many a laugh.

The closing number was a hit in musical extravaganza. "My Pickaninny Babe," tuneful and pretty in melody, beautifully staged and cleverly put on by a bunch of the burnt cork artists. It pictured a scene of the Old Cabin Home, with "Liza Jackson" (Wm. Smith) crooning lullabies to her pickaninny babe and her grey haired old husband (Rankin Paul) a second old Black Joe. Both did capital work in their roles.

A bunch, invited for a cake walk and dance, convulsed the audience with great make-ups and high doings. There was Mandy Lee (Sidney Katz), whose Tipperary bow was worth the price of admission, and who paired off with Parson Jones (Perce Pearce) in a cake walk and dance that introduced all kinds of "highfalutin" steps; there was Opal White (Louis Bernhard), a fetching black belle in large picture hat; Lucy Lee (Glenn Brock), a heart smasher, and Libby Johnson (Earl Binns) another charmer with three lady killers; Deacon Black (E. W. Harvey); Elder Brown (Wm. Turner); Rastus Hill (Frank Ellis). The entire company assisted behind the scenes.

The electric light effects were particularly beautiful in this little scene.

Throughout the performance the spot lights and electrical effects added greatly to the artistic success.

The stage decorations, elaborate and beautiful were furnished by Leo Katz & Co., and the piano furnished by Summers & Son. Sam Lydy, property man, deserves special mention for his well executed stage work and good handling of the property.

JAPS DENY ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH BASE

Turtle Bay Not Mined and No Attempt to Fortify or Hold Port Is Made, Say Japanese—U. S. Officials Regard Report As Absurd and See No Cause for Alarm—Japs Working to Salvage Stranded Warship.

Washington, April 15.—An official statement, authorized by the Japanese Embassy today, characterized as preposterous, reports that a naval base had been established at Turtle Bay, Lower California, and declared "there never has been any intention on the part of the Japanese government to locate a naval base, or occupy any territory on the west coast of Mexico."

Operations of the Japanese warships in Turtle Bay, embassy officials said, were solely for the purpose of salvaging the stranded cruiser Asama.

Dispatches from Los Angeles, telling of the gathering of foreign warships in the secluded Mexican haven, of a large camp ashore and of mines laid on the harbor, created no sensation among Washington officials.

A Japanese guard has been maintained in the bay and vicinity while the Japanese government has endeavored to make arrangements with the American wrecking companies to float the Asama.

Ensign of Rosemor farm near Jamestown, was celebrated at noon Wednesday at Glenwood, the beautiful country home of the bride's parents and was a brilliant event.

One hundred and fifty guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Wishon, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Jeffersonville. The home throughout had been beautifully decorated in a color scheme of yellow and white and the marriage ceremony took place before an altar of palms and ferns arranged in the large parlor. Preceding the ceremony Mr. Robert Bronson, of Blanchester, sang "O Promise Me" and during the entrance of the bride party the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Belle Seibert of Jeffersonville at the piano with coronet accompaniment by Mrs. Mabel Marchant of near Jeffersonville. During the ceremony

Opened Every Saturday Evening

A very large number of relatives and friends from Cleveland, Columbus and other cities throughout the state were present at the wedding Wednesday.—Xenia Republican.

Forty women enjoyed the meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society in the parlors of Grace church Wednesday afternoon, with Mesdames Dial, Blackmer, Inskeep, Lloyd, Gillespie, DeWees, Victor, Smith and Ab. McCoy.

Mrs. W. E. Ireland had charge of the opening devotional exercises. Mrs. Jesse Blackmer presented the subject "The Red Men and Social Order," in a fine paper.

"Sketches From Hiawatha," charmingly given by Mrs. F. G. Carpenter, were much enjoyed and also the pretty duet by Marjorie and Dorothy Sparks.

Mrs. Wheeler Bay read "The Indian's Interpretation of the Twenty-third Psalm." The brilliant "Sextette From Lucia" was given masterly piano interpretation by Mrs. B. E. Kelley, and evoked enthusiastic plaudits. Mrs. Kelley is a musician whose talents are thoroughly appreciated in the society.

Light refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. A. A. Hyer very pleasantly entertained the S. C. Club Wednesday afternoon.

SPLENDID SUCCESS CROWNS BAZAAR

The Rebekah's Bazaar presented a scene of the utmost brilliancy and gaiety Wednesday night when throngs of people visited the beautiful booths, generously patronized them and found the social atmosphere thoroughly delightful.

All day people came and went from the Bazaar, but it was at night that pleasure reached its height and the Rebekahs had their hands full in looking after the crowd. Every one was enthusiastic over the decorations of the hall and over the various food products, fancy articles and different wares of the booths, the best of everything being offered to patrons.

A splendid program drew three or four hundred people to the large upper hall of the Temple, which was not adequate to the swarming crowd.

Miss Beulah Elliott opened the program with a very pretty piano solo. Mrs. Elmer Junk, always a fascinating reader, did extremely clever work in a colored dialect reading "Higher Culture in Dixie," strenuous applause bringing her back for an encore.

Mrs. J. L. Marchant delighted the audience with her unique accomplishment—a whistling solo.

A charming musical reading was given by Miss Luella Riley, with Miss Kidd accompanist. Brilliant piano solos were rendered by Miss Annette Stafford and Miss Mary Edge.

The special feature of the evening was the fancy drill put on by the drill team of fifty Rebekahs. It was splendidly executed under the direction of Capt. Allen, floor manager, and Mr. R. J. McLean, lecturer, and the team received a storm of complimentary applause.

The Rebekahs served a large number with dinners and lunches during the past two days.

QUESTION THE POWER OF COMPTROLLER

Washington, April 15.—Both sides in the struggle between the Riggs National bank and Comptroller Williams and Secretary McAdoo are getting ready for the fight in the courts, which will begin tomorrow.

Evidence clearly indicates that the fight already is assuming proportions far beyond the mere relations between this powerful Washington bank and the treasury officials. Bankers in all parts of the country are manifesting a keen interest in the proceedings.

The big question which is overshadowing all personal controversies between the Riggs bank officers and the treasury officials is that of the powers of the comptroller under the law. It is said that many national banks, particularly those in the big cities in the east, have been chafing for months under the demands which have been made upon them by Comptroller Williams for reports and information in regard to their affairs. The power of the comptroller to make these demands has been questioned by many bankers, but the matter never has been passed on by the courts. The proceedings begun by the Riggs bank officers will therefore test out this general question for the banks of the country.

Two sections of the national banking act which are up for interpretation in the present court proceedings are sections 5211 and 5213. The former section provides that every national bank shall make to the comptroller of the currency not less than five reports during each year, according to the form which may be prescribed by him. These reports shall exhibit in detail the resources and liabilities of the bank on a date specified by him. The same section contains this grant of power: "The comptroller shall also have power to call for special reports from any particular association whenever in his judgment the same are necessary to a full and complete knowledge of its condition."

Section 5213 relates to the penalties which shall be assessed for failure to transmit the reports required by law.

The Troubles of Villa

The people who confidently believed that the ragged and irresponsible followers of Villa, the former Mexican outlaw, now turned patriot, would have an easy time in forcing the followers of Carranza to abandon their attempt to prevent Villa becoming dictator of Mexico are being given a genuine surprise.

Thus far the fortunes of war have smiled upon the followers of Carranza who, though a thoroughly impractical man of very limited ability, is vastly superior in morals and intention to the ex-bandit who formerly acted as commander of the Carranza forces.

It does not seem probable now that permanent peace can come to Mexico with Villa in authority or in a position to command any considerable following.

Villa has no idea of government and neither suggests nor adopts any plans for the permanent establishment of the civil authorities. He is a bandit by instinct and by profession. He believes firmly in a government of might and has no higher ambition than to attain an autocratic rulership over the masses of Mexican people and to maintain that leadership by the sword for the purpose of plunder.

With Villa eliminated the prospect for the rebuilding of Mexico would be far brighter. Carranza has an aim higher than the gaining of personal advantage. His conduct warrants the belief that he would be sincere in his efforts to bring about lasting peace and to let the Mexican people rule.

The decisive and overwhelming defeat of Villa would be cheering news to the world, especially to the United States.

Changing the Divorce Laws

The legislature of the state, has fallen in line with most of its predecessors, by tinkering with the divorce laws.

At present, the laws of Ohio provide ten grounds upon which a divorce may be obtained in Ohio. On Tuesday the Senate passed the Moore bill, striking from the statutes nine of those grounds, leaving only one legal ground upon which the marriage contract may be annulled.

The measure will now go to the House, where it is expected violent opposition will manifest itself and, perhaps, bring about the defeat of the measure or a material change in its provisions.

The Senate is to be congratulated on recognizing that the divorce evil in Ohio has grown to alarming proportions and realizing that if society is to be preserved, something must be done to reduce the number of divorces granted.

It is questionable, however, whether the Senate in passing the Moore bill has hit upon the proper remedy.

If divorces are to be granted at all, there is surely more than one cause which would justify a dissolution of the marriage contract. The divorce evil has grown not because of the number of grounds which the law specifies as sufficient to warrant the granting of a divorce, but because of the ease with which parties who, for some trivial reason, have grown dissatisfied with the marriage relation, can satisfy a court of the existence of one of the legal grounds for divorces.

It is the perpetual grind of the well oiled machinery of the divorce courts which is the root of the evil. The tendency of so many judges to regard the divorce decree as a consequence to follow as a matter of course the filing of the petition, that is causing society to become alarmed.

Well may society be alarmed at the growth of the divorce evil, but it will be harmful rather than helpful for the law making body to mistake the remedy.

Industrialism Unprepared Leads Inevitably to War

By RICHMOND P. HOBSON, Former Congressman From Alabama

FOR America and all other nations as for all living organisms the first law is self preservation.

An enemy could raid our mainland coasts, occupy and levy upon our great cities without any chance whatever of effective resistance, destroy our navy and shipbuilding yards, arsenals, shipping and public works. IT IS VAIN TO IMAGINE OUR CITIES WOULD BE SPARED AFTER THE EXPERIENCE OF CITIES ABROAD. IT IS VAIN TO IMAGINE THE MEAGER LAND FORCES AVAILABLE COULD MAKE ANY SERIOUS RESISTANCE.

Our government will have to be maintained in the face of antagonistic institutions of the old world, which menace our institutions and our homes, our property rights on land and sea.

In a fair competition in times of peace militarism must go down, but industrialism unprepared would as inevitably fall in war.

IN THE INTEREST OF HUMANITY THAT LIES UPON THE SURVIVAL OF INDUSTRIALISM, AMERICA, WITH HER VAST RESOURCES, SHOULD MAKE ADEQUATE PREPARATIONS TO SAFEGUARD HER OWN PEOPLE ALWAYS AGAINST THE SPIRIT OF MILITARISM.

Poetry For Today

KEEP SMILING, BUT—
It will not suffice to keep smiling;
It will not quite serve to be gay;
It's never enough to sing out: "I'm the stuff!"
I'll win—if you give me my way.
You've got to stand up to disaster,
Defeated, your courage renew;
Then say with a grin that means business: "I'll win
In spite of the worst you can do!"

The world loves a smiler — that's granted;
But sometimes the world, without fear,
Is quick to surmise that his anger
won't rise,
So hands him a poke in the ear!
Then if he keeps buoyantly smiling
Nor takes in his humor a tuck,
The world will declare: "Since he seems not to care,
I'll swat him another for luck."

Keep grinning! Oh, yes, be as cheery
As ever you wish to the while;
But show that beneath is a full set of teeth
To back up and bolster the smile.
Remind the old world that you're ready
To fight to the end of the war;
The world then—no myth! — you will get to smile with you
That might have smiled at you before.

TOUGH OLD IRON.

The Famous Pillar in the Temple of Kutab Minar at Delhi.

There seems to be no doubt that the metal produced previous to the introduction of modern methods was superior in its resistance to corrosion to the present day product. I have seen various iron articles, especially nails, which showed far less rust after an exposure of a hundred years or so than the modern variety does in a few weeks.

One article, an old flintlock pistol, was especially interesting. It was found by a friend in a patch of woods in Vermont and had evidently laid there for many years, since a piece of newspaper with the date 1796 had been used as wadding in loading it. All the iron parts were rather rough and pitted and covered with rust, but the arm was in surprisingly good shape considering the conditions to which it had been subjected. The spring, hammer and trigger were still capable of performing their functions, and very little effort was required to put the old weapon in decidedly presentable condition.

Perhaps one of the most noted of the iron articles which have come down to us from antiquity is the famous pillar in the temple of Kutab Minar at Delhi, India. This old shaft, which projects some thirty feet above the surface of the ground, was erected about 900 B. C. Today it shows little trace of rust, although it has had no protective coating other than that which the atmosphere itself has formed upon it.—L. C. Wilson in Engineering Magazine.

"Safe," remarked the umpire.

"I beg your pardon, sir," remonstrated the player. The nine walked to where the umpire was standing.
"Pardon our protest," they said gently, "but, perforce, we must disagree with you. In our humble judgment the ball was in the hands of the baseman one-fifth of a second before the player reached base."

"I regret that I must disagree with you, gentlemen," said the umpire. "I must accept the evidence of my own senses, but I assure you that only a stern sense of duty compels me to refuse your courteous request for a change in my decision."

Of course this never happened, but as the product of a highly sensitized imagination it certainly ranks in the forefront.—Philadelphia Ledger.

"Before the end of the year the capacity of the Burton-Townsend Brick company of Zanesville will have been doubled by the addition of new equipment to cost $500,000. This is interesting news to Columbus stockholders, who yesterday received their quarterly 1 1/4 per cent dividend on the preferred stock. The output of the present plant, combined with the new equipment, has been sold out for several months to come. With natural resources that are said to be unequalled, together with a coal mining property south of Zanesville that furnishes more coal than necessary for the operation of the plants, officials are pleased at the prospects. NON-TAXATION OF MORTGAGES IS PROPOSAL

Columbus, O., April 15.—The legislature is to vote on the question of exempting mortgages from taxation. The resolution of Representative Morris of Van Wert, submitting such an amendment to the constitution, was voted yesterday by the taxation committee to be reported to the house calendar. Though reported without recommendation, and 24 hours after the committee had tabled it, there is strong support for it among members on both sides of the house who wish to afford the people opportunity to do away with double taxation—the taxation on the property and the taxation of the mortgage on the property.

By one theory, the proposal would exempt practically all public and private bonds, for a bond, secured by the faith and credit of a city, has back of it all the property of the city, and in case of default the bondholder could seize all the property necessary to satisfy his claim. But it is said the proposal covers only such bonds as are secured by an actually executed and filed mortgage.

As the committee has agreed to amend the resolution the exemption will apply to "all notes hereafter issued which are secured by mortgage on real or chattel mortgage property, bearing not to exceed 5 per cent interest."

The house has adopted the Purdum resolution paying the way for an amendment to exempt Ohio public bonds, and so the voters may have opportunity to vote on each proposition separately.

Undoubtedly the Morris resolution covers not only real estate mortgage notes but also railroad and other corporate bonds which are secured by mortgage on the property of the corporation.

OFFENDERS MOVE THE LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library is now located in the District Assessor's office, first floor of the court house.

The transfer was made by train riders, under the direction of Judge Allen, and the last load of the vast number of volumes in the library was carefully placed in position in the basement about eleven o'clock Wednesday night, after which the weary men were locked up for the night and released Thursday morning.

The men were placed upon their honor, were not guarded, and it is safe to say that they worked harder than for many a day.

Two of the men were Hungarians, and to the query of "why aren't you over in Europe fighting?" they instantly replied: "we no want fight!"

The eight men were picked up by Detective Kennedy when asked by Judge Allen if he could furnish him a few train riders to do some work. "Still plenty more fellows if you want them" said Kennedy as he marched the last of the eight up for inspection.

In all probability the room occupied by the library will later be utilized by the District Assessor, and the library will fill the rooms now used by the Assessor.

PICTORIAL TRIUMPH AT PALACE THEATER

"Neptune's Daughter" verified its reputation as a marvelous work in photo-play art and drew throngs of people, hundreds of whom were unable to gain admittance, to the Palace Theater, Wednesday night, as well as good matinee audiences.

Enchanting as are the magnificent scenes of the play with coral reefs, marine grottos, semi-tropical verdure, expanses of ocean and exciting as is the fairy plot, in which mermaids vie with mortals, the great wonder of the photo-drama is the famous "Diving Venus," Annette Kellermann.

Miss Kellermann's swimming and diving as the Lorelei of the play entranced the audience and created wonder akin to that which has been aroused in her notable vaudeville work.

These superb pictures were taken amidst the tropical luxuriance of the Bermuda Islands.

The last performance is tonight.

YOUTHS FACE CHARGE OF CHICKEN STEALING

Arthur and Orville Brown, brothers aged about 20 and 18 years, respectively, were arrested by the police Wednesday afternoon on a charge of chicken stealing.

The arrest was made by Chief of Police Moore and Officer Baughn, who went to the home of Al Denner, on Elm Street, where the young men have been staying. A sale of eight chickens, netting $4.55, at the Brownell packing house Wednesday morning, led to the arrest.

When brought before the mayor together, the young men refused to talk. Examined separately, Arthur Brown admitted that the poultry had been stolen, while his brother stoutly maintained they were not. They were taken to the county jail where they will have plenty of time to think it over.

B. Y. P. U. RALLY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The Young People's work is always one of the most interesting branches of the work of the Clinton Baptist County Association, and the B. Y. P. U. rally of Wednesday night drew a capacity audience to the First Baptist church.

The excellent program offered was a satisfactory aftermath to a full day devoted to the Sunday school work of the association.

Rev. L. A. Wood, of Chillicothe, presided. Prof. D. C. Gilmore, of Granville, a fluent and polished speaker, recently returned from missionary work in Birmah, and full of the needs of that country, gave an interesting talk on "The Young People of Birmah." The talk covered the manners and customs of the people and their growing earnestness in matters that pertain to the Christian religion.

An excellent address, full of inspiration to young people was given by Rev. F. A. Detweiler, of Dayton, the subject, "The Visions of Christian Youth." The speaker held up ideals of beauty, impressing upon the young people the necessity of gaining the highest vision in order to attain efficiency.

Fine musical numbers added to the evening's pleasure. These included Rev. W. M. Warjon, of Greenfield, a vocal solo; Mr. James Kneisley, violin solo and Male Quartet, the singers Messrs. Burch, Hicks, Evans and Davenport.

The different unions made good reports.

Today the Woman's Missionary branch of the association is holding session, with a large number of delegates in attendance and able speakers taking up the special work of the societies.

BIG MEETING ODD FELLOWS APRIL 20

Mr. W. H. Himiller, Noble Grand, has issued the following notice of the big meeting:

"The First Degree will be conferred under the auspices of Temple Lodge by the Imperial Degree Staff at Memorial Hall, Tuesday evening, April 20th, 1915. A large class of candidates from this and neighboring lodges. All Odd Fellows will be cordially welcomed."

destruction being employed in the world's greatest conflict which is still shaking the entire universe as it never has been disturbed.

The suffering, the ruin; life in the trenches and in caves; the awful toll in human lives; the hardships endured by both man and beast; the enormous weapons, including the monster "caterpillar" howitzers of the Germans and the vicious 75 millimeter guns of the French; armored trains, automobiles and scores of field pieces, in action—all are clearly shown, together with thrilling cavalry charges, skirmishes, bayonet charges, the blowing up of bridges, bombardment of numerous cities, and a thousand and one other interesting and instructive features of the big war.

The Kaiser is clearly shown reviewing thousands of troops who pass by, using the "goose step" and walking as one man. The Sultan of Turkey in his royal launch; King Albert of Belgium and noted generals on both sides of the conflict have been caught by the camera man.

The pictures are pronounced foremost among the most educational and interesting movies ever shown in the city.

BIG CATTLE SALES IN FAYETTE CO.

Swift & Company's representative, Frank H. Roberts, of Marion, Ohio, was in this territory last week and succeeded in buying a number of choice heavy cattle. Among those of whom he purchased cattle was Os Briggs, of Washington C. H., from whom he purchased twelve car loads, averaging fifteen hundred and forty-five pounds, and for which he paid eight and one-quarter cents per pound.

Among other purchases he bought three carloads, 48 head, of strictly fancy Hereford yearlings of Reuben J. Holdren, of Good Hope, at eight and one-quarter cents. He also bought one car load of very prime short horn yearlings, 23 head, of Mr. Douglass, of Sabina, for which he gave eight dollars and fifteen cents per hundred.

Swift & Company will be represented in this locality by Mr. Roberts in the future, and he expects to buy some of Fayette county's products as he says he is convinced that Fayette has a number of good cattle feeders.

Simple As Saying It; Never Fails.

It does your heart good to see how easily and quickly any corn comes out when you put "GETS-IT" on! And then when you've gone along for years trying everything, when you've sat up nights wrapping up your toes in bandages, smearing on salves that rub off or swell up the corn, pasting on cotton plasters that make corns pop-eyed, slaughtering your toes with razors, jabbing them with knives and pruners to the quick with scissors—and then you put on 2 drops of "GETS-IT" and see your corn fall right off—why, it just looks like a miracle. Just try it. "GETS-IT" never fails. No pain, no trouble. Use it for any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

NEW PLAN TO FINANCE WAR

London, April 15.—The treasury has a new plan for financing the war, according to an announcement in the Official Gazette. There will be an unlimited issue of treasury bills instead of, as has been the case, a limited issue of them from time to time. The Bank of England is now empowered to offer treasury bills daily for either three, six or nine months, the bills to bear a fixed rate of interest to be determined from time to time by the treasury. The new plan will steady the market and will provide the government with all necessary resources for a considerable period, in the opinion of the bankers. It will also obviate the necessity of another war loan for some time.

CIVIL SERVICE BILL PASSED BY THE HOUSE

Columbus, April 15.—The house passed the Barnes-Moore civil service bill and the senate put through the Wickline election code. Both are administration measures.

The Wickline bill, which is yet to pass the house, simplifies the election machinery by reducing from four to two the membership of all the county election boards, except those in Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties, and by eliminating the two clerks in each precinct in the state. It simplifies the duties of the voters by abolishing after 1916 periodical registration in cities by substituting a permanent registration by card system, and by doing away with the double primary in presidential election years. These duties are further simplified by the Wise bill, which the senate passed, which provides for absent voting by electors who are away on election day. Senator Wickline estimated that his bill would effect an annual saving in expense of $250,000, and that an additional $250,000 would be saved once in four years by doing away with the second primary in presidential years.

Civil Service Bill Passed.
If the senate concurs in house amendments to the civil service bill and ninety days elapse without the filing of a referendum petition, at that time, the positions held by thousands of state, county and city employees who are holding on by virtue of noncompetitive examinations will be vacant, but these employees will be retained as provisional appointees for a time to be fixed by the state and municipal service commissions. This interim, it is expected, will be availed of by the commission to conduct competitive examinations open to these employees and to anyone else who chooses to enter.

The largest addition to the already liberal exemptions made by the law of 1913 is the exemption of practically all the positions in the eighteen state institutions under the state board of administration, and practically all positions in county and city penal, benevolent and charitable institutions. The institutional exemptions include superintendents, officers, teachers, investigators, matrons and attendants. Other new exemptions are heads of subdepartments appointed by the head of a principal department, three assistants and a stenographer.

The house adopted an amendment offered by Barnes to make more certain that police and fire chiefs were left under civil service protection, and the bill gave these chiefs and all other municipal employees, if dismissed, suspended or reduced in pay, an appeal to the local commission.

Four Democrats, Kohl, Lustig, Stivers and Wintermute, voted for the civil service bill, which empowers the governor to appoint a strictly bipartisan state commission of two members at $4,000 for two and four years, respectively, with a secretary at $3,000, and mayors of cities to appoint commissions of three members for two, four and six years, respectively, on the expiration of the terms of the present municipal commissioners.

Optometrists Win.
Optometrists won their fight to have their profession eliminated from the Platt-Elis bill, which seeks to regulate every sort of medical profession, from corn doctors to practitioners of "Swedish movement," by requiring them to be licensed by the state medical board. An amendment striking optometrists from the bill was offered by Senator Fellinger of Cleveland, and adopted by a vote of 22 to 9.

A bitter fight developed in the senate when an attempt was made to postpone indefinitely the Sutter-short train bill. Labor representatives won by putting down the motion by a vote of 19 to 11.

The senate taxation committee recommended for passage the Parrett-Whittemore tax decentralizer, abolishing the office of district assessor and providing for the election of ward and township assessors. The measure has passed the house.

The legislature is to vote on the question of exempting mortgages from taxation. The resolution of Representative Morris of Van Wert, submitting such an amendment to the constitution, was voted by the taxation committee to be reported to the house calendar.

OHIO BRIEFS

Teacher Saves Pupils.

Springfield, O., April 15.—Fire destroyed the Pleasant Grove school building, several miles south of this city. Miss Mary Bazel, teacher, was the last to leave the burning building, leading two of the smaller children. She had just got outside when the roof fell in. Miss Bazel had previously marched the older children out.

Tin Workers' Wages Reduced.

St. Clairsville, O., April 15.—The American Sheet and Tin Plate company met the reduction in wages given independent manufacturers by the union by reducing the wages of its men who are not organized 6 per cent in the tin mill and 11 per cent in sheet mills. The new wages are effective tomorrow.

Shot and Beaten to Death.

McArthur, O., April 15.—Frank Faulkner, thirty, was shot and beaten to death at the home of W. A. Meek, near New Plymouth. It is said that Faulkner had been warned to stay away from the house. The authorities have not yet determined who killed Faulkner.

Auto Turns Turtle.

Dayton, O., April 15.—One man was killed and three others injured when their automobile turned turtle about two miles north of Sharonville. Roy Myers was instantly killed and Edward Ryan, Charles Achey and George Mann were seriously injured.

To Meet at Bucyrus.

Bellefontaine, O., April 15.—The Marion presbytery selected Bucyrus as the place for the next meeting. The presbytery recommended that trustees of Wooster university reconsider their decision to conduct a normal school.

BRITISH ARMY MAKES MISTAKE

London, April 15.—Official confirmation of the report that the heavy casualties suffered by the British at Neuve Chapelle March 19 were due to a mistake committed by one of the British commanders was obtained when a long dispatch from Field Marshal Sir John French reviewing the fighting at that point was given out by the war office. The British commander specifically states that "considerable delay occurred after the capture of Neuve Chapelle. The infantry was disorganized by the violent nature of the attack." Further in the dispatch he says: "I am of the opinion that this delay would not have occurred and the clearly expressed order of the commander of the first army been more carefully observed." The fact that British artillery fire was to some extent the cause of the heavy British losses at Neuve Chapelle is now being hinted at in the newspapers. These accounts say that the artillery was directed to fire at certain points, but owing to deranged field, telephone service and to fog, the fire was not raised when the British troops took the first German line.

General French reports the British losses totaling 12,811 in the three days' fighting at Neuve Chapelle as follows: Killed, 190 officers, 2,337 men; wounded, 359 officers, 8,174 other ranks; missing, 23 officers, 1,728 men.

HOW TO INVEST MONEY.

Exercise the Same Care You Would in Buying a House.

One who has money to invest should know something of what he is buying. Otherwise he is a mere gambler and would have a better chance to win if he played a game of cards for money. All gambling is reprehensible, though it must be conceded that speculation in a sense is gambling. But this might be said of the purchase of real estate or any commodity of a changeable value.

Let the investor make a study of business conditions. Watch the earnings of the corporations and the railways as reported in the newspapers. Note the trend of trade. Observe the transactions in prominent securities on the Stock Exchange and have knowledge of what is going on. Exercise the same care that you would in buying a horse, an automobile, a wagon or a house.

Fortunes have been made by those who have pursued this method, and fortunes lost by those who have simply gone into speculation as if they were throwing dice. I well recall the era of railroad and industrial disturbance over twenty years ago, when nobody wanted to buy stocks and everybody wanted to sell. Those who picked up the "cripples," as they were then called, and held them until prosperity revived, made handsome profits. In some instances realizing more than ten times what they paid.—Jasper in Leslie's.

Missed Her.

Fall—Did you hear that last joke at the vaudeville last night?
Mall—No. I left before she sang.—Gargoyles.

Tobacco.

Tobacco injures many a man. Its use is surely not a joke. And yet it's rather better than the substitutes we sometimes smoke.—Washington Star.

ZEPPELINS MAKE RAID IN ENGLAND

London, April 15.—There was a Zeppelin raid on Newcastle, north coast of England, and half a dozen of the nearby towns last night. The airship came out of the darkness over the North sea, sweeping a streak of daylight into the night before it.

Newcastle was the first city attacked. From it the Zeppelin airship turned to the north and slipped over Blythe, Tyne, Wall's End, Seatonburn, Crampington and other small places. Eight bombs were dropped on Blythe.

One of the bombs dropped by the Zeppelin fell on a railroad in Wallsend, in Northumberland, narrowly missing a train filled with passengers bound for Newcastle. Several other trains were held up pending the airship's leaving the neighborhood. The night was dark, without the slightest wind, and all conditions were favorable for the raid.

Full inquiry shows that no loss of life or serious personal injury resulted from the Zeppelin raid and that although several houses were damaged, the material loss was not very heavy. Newcastle is about 470 miles from Cuxhaven, where there is a Zeppelin base, the nearest one, in fact, to the English coast, and it is from that base, in all likelihood, that the raiders set out upon the attack. London is only 150 miles from Newcastle.

HOT FIGHTING IN FRANCE

Germans Reported to Be Falling Back at One Point.

Paris, April 15.—Heavy fighting has occurred on several points of the line within the last twenty-four hours, notably near Berry-au-Bac, southwest of Neufchatel, and in the St. Mihiel section.

In the district of Berry-au-Bac, where the French are forcing the enemy back gradually toward Neufchatel, the French met with temporary success, then lost the trench they had occupied and finally won another in the same neighborhood.

The Germans are making desperate efforts to stop the French movement against the St. Mihiel wedge, which threatens to cut off the troops in that section from their base at Metz.

Three Cracksmen Caught.

Columbus, April 15.—Three yeggs will take notice that on the 12th day of July, 1913, Roxie Jones filed her petition in the Probate Court of Fayette County, Ohio, being case Number 2036, praying a divorce from said Edward Jones, and for custody of minor children, and that said case will be for hearing on and after the 22nd day of May, A. D., 1915.

Diver Reaches Sunken Submarine.
Columbus, April 15.—Chief Gunner's Mate Frank Crilley went 288 feet under water here and walked along the top of the submarine F-4, which disappeared March 25. The depth is said by naval officers to be a world's diving record. He found the F-4 lying on a smooth, sandy bottom, with no coral growths to impede hoisting operations.

D. T. & I. CARS HIT TROLLEY

Detroit, April 15.—In a collision between a Detroit city streetcar and a string of freight cars pushed by a switch engine on the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad, fifteen persons were killed and about twenty injured. Most of the dead are foreigners whose homes were beyond the western limits of the city. Four of them are women.

The streetcar, one of the largest in service, was heavily loaded with passengers. As the car approached the railroad crossing it stopped and the conductor ran ahead to see if the track was clear. He signaled the motorman to wait, but apparently the latter, who is said to have been inexperienced, misunderstood his meaning. He applied the power and the car ran rapidly down an incline and on to the railroad tracks.

A string of freight cars being pushed by a switch engine struck the streetcar fairly in the middle, smashing it almost to bits. The wreckage was pushed along 100 feet, several of the dead and injured dropping along the street before the train was brought to a standstill. Others were crushed in the splintered mass of steel and wood, and it was several hours before they could be extricated and their exact number known.

As the dead were taken from the debris they were laid in a row along the street and covered with canvas, pending the arrival of the coroner. Later they were removed to undertaking establishments.

Many private automobiles rushed to the scene of the accident and these, together with the ambulances which responded to the call for help, carried the injured to the hospitals. Several of those so removed were so badly hurt it is said they may die.

At the place where the accident occurred the railroad tracks occupy a narrow street. On one corner of the intersection stood a grocery store and on the opposite side the Delray station of the Detroit, Lima and Ironton railroad. Both these buildings were struck by the streetcar as it was carried along in front of the freight and partially demolished. No occupant of either structure was injured.

THE BIG LEAGUE SEASON OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY

New York, April 15.—Large crowds witnessed the opening games yesterday in all major league cities. President Wilson, who witnessed the contest between the Senators and Yankees, began the game by throwing out the first ball to the umpire. Pittsburgh of the Athletics pitched a one-hit game against the Boston Americans. Cobb missed his first fielding chance, miffing a high fly in the first inning. Pittsburgh made a runaway event of the opener in Cincinnati, outplaying the Reds at all points. Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns battled thirteen innings before a decision was reached. The world's champions were shut out by the Phillies, while the New York Giants smothered the Brooklyn.

LAWRENCE COUNTY FEELING SALUBRIOUS

Swat the Murderous

Fly; He Is Mankind's Arch Enemy

PSHAW! you will say, flies! How absurd! Harmless insects of no particular importance! Now, if it should be voles or great rats, even—

Would it astonish you, would it shock you, to be told that thousands of children are slain by flies each year? Would you be surprised to learn that in one city of the United States over 7,000 persons lost their lives from intestinal diseases believed by certain scientists to be traceable to the "harmless insect" that is now buzzing on your windowpane or against your screen door? Suppose it were solemnly stated by scientists of international repute that anterior poliomyelitis, or infant paralysis, of which one hospital in New York alone received and treated hundreds of cases in one recent summer, can be carried by one of the kinds of flies you pass by as of "no particular importance." What would you say then? And it is true, every word of it. Walk into your kitchen and observe the number of flies there. Are there a hundred, a thousand? You had better find a conflagration as you open the door, for its possibilities of disaster are not much greater, says Dr. Pease in Good House-keeping.

It is recognized that any reform must begin with the individual and grow from him or her. The fly campaign has been successful only in a very moderate degree, because 95 per cent of the hundred million among whom we live are asleep to the danger or refuse to take it seriously. The slumbering infant, the aged parent, the romping youth, the rugged athlete, all tomorrow may be victims of the filthy pest.

Unsettled.

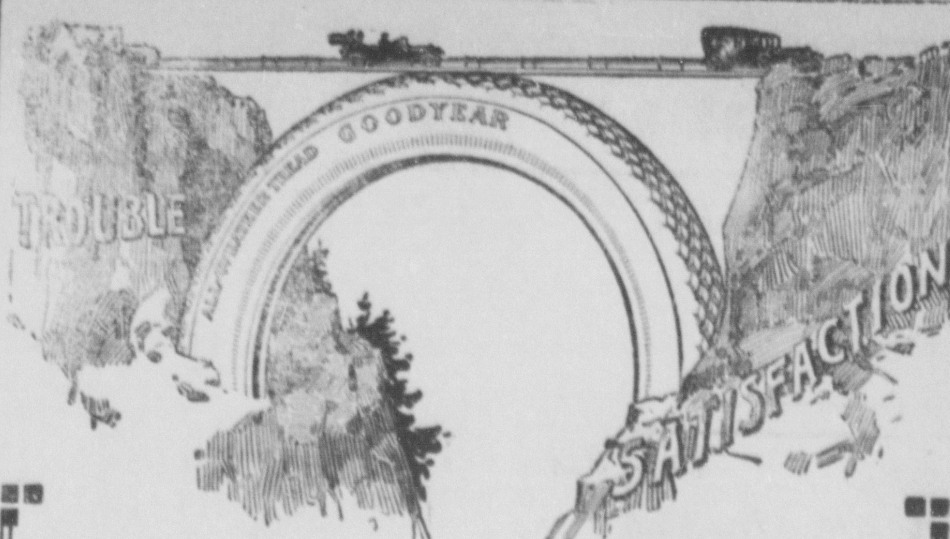

"I hear that they belong to the early settlers."
 "Well, you wouldn't think so if you could see the bill collectors climbing their front steps."—Judge.

Fortified Tires

Span the Way from Trouble

Goodyear tires have bridged the way for countless men to less trouble and tax. And those men, by their endorsement, brought our last year's output up to 1,479,883 tires.

Why do you suppose that Goodyears hold top place—you who use other tires? They have held that place for years, outselling any other.

The only reason, as you must know, is that Goodyears average best. And that's how they are bound to win you.

The Super-Tire

They are not trouble-proof. Mishaps come to them, misuse affects them, much like other tires.

But Goodyears are Fortified

Tires. They

protect you in five ways employed by no other maker.

They combat

five major troubles in unique

ways, exclusive to Fortified Tires.

These five extra features cost us fortunes. One alone—our "On-Air" cure—costs us $450,000 yearly. But they save Goodyear users millions of dollars yearly. They avoid countless troubles for them.

Lower Prices

On February 1st we made another big reduction. That makes three in two years, totaling 45 per cent. We are giving you, through mammoth production, the best tire value ever known.

Please prove this, for your own sake, by the tire itself.

INCENDIARY BLAZE DESTROYS COAL TIPPLE

Steubenville, O., April 15.—An incendiary fire destroyed the tipple of the Dexter Coal company at Brilliant, where 135 miners were thrown out of work recently. An attempt also was made to burn a schoolhouse near by.

Armed with a subpoena a deputy sheriff went out to serve it on a wealthy and extremely snobbish manufacturer, whom he met at the gate of the manufacturer's country home. The great man was in an automobile, accompanied by two ladies, and as the process server handed over the papers he politely raised his hat. The other assumed a democratic manner. "You don't need to take off your hat to me, young man," he said. "I took off my hat not to you, sir," was the answer. "But to the ladies with you."—Argonaut

CORNS LIFT OUT

Dr. Hunt's New Penetration Method Loosens Them Root and All. FULL SIZE BOX 10c.

No corn ever went so easily, quickly or surely as by Dr. Hunt's new way—the penetration principle of permanently curing corns. Dr. Hunt has devoted a life of study to this one subject. The final result is this entirely different method—a method by which corns GO forever in two short days.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in a simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Cut plaster size of corn and apply it. Doesn't "bulk" like clumsy pads. Contains no caustic to smart or cause blood-poisoning. No paring necessary. Wear any shoes. Ease comes the moment you apply this new remedy. You walk in comfort. You forget your feet. In two days corn lifts out.

Nothing like Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure has been known before. It is an entirely new principle. Millions of packages have already been sold. Cures any corn. They must go.

And the price is only ten cents a box. Guaranteed or money back. That's very little to pay for foot comfort. Sold by druggists and shoe dealers everywhere. Cure your corns once and for all, this new way. If any difficulty in securing, send 10 cents in stamps for a box, to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

Turtle Bay Not Mined and No Attempt to Fortify or Hold Port Is Made, Say Japanese—U. S. Officials Regard Report As Absurd and See No Cause for Alarm—Japs Working to Salvage Stranded Warship.

Associated Press.
Washington, April 15.—An official statement, authorized by the Japanese Embassy today, characterized as preposterous, reports that a naval base had been established at Turtle Bay, Lower California, and declared "there never has been any intention on the part of the Japanese government to locate a naval base, or occupy any territory on the west coast of Mexico."
Operations of the Japanese warships in Turtle Bay, embassy officials said, were solely for the purpose of salvaging the stranded cruiser Asama.
Dispatches from Los Angeles, telling of the gathering of foreign warships in the secluded Mexican haven, of a large camp ashore and of mines laid on the harbor, created no sensation among Washington officials.
A Japanese guard has been maintained in the bay and vicinity while the Japanese government has endeavored to make arrangements with the American wrecking companies to float the Asama.

Trading in stocks today was again in such large volume as to make the movement unusually impressive.

Enormous Losses Suffered By Czar's Horde of Fighters Telling on Offensive—Advance of Mile Made By French in Alsace.

By Associated Press.
London, April 15.—Failure of the Russian attempt to invade Hungary was announced today by the German War Office.
The statement is made that the efforts of the Russian army from Przemyśl, to force the Lupkow and east Dukla passes, was not successful, and that its attacks at several points along this front resulted in defeat with heavy losses. In consequence, it is said, the attacking power of Russia has lessened visibly.
Although official reports from Petrograd concede no such reverses, they indicate the Russian advance has been brought virtually to a halt.

CHAUTAUQUA IS TO BE HUMMER

The Washington Chautauqua—generally speaking—the Fayette county chautauqua, is to be held this year July 18-19-20-21-22-23 and 24th, and a much better line of attractions has been secured than the good ones offered last year.

One of the leading attractions on the program is Creators Band, one of the most famous bands in the United States, and which is composed of some 60 pieces. The cost to the guarantors has been much more than last year, and the patrons of the chautauqua are assured of something that will please every holder of tickets.

Prof. Wm. McClain, who is chairman of the Chautauqua Committee, has the distribution of one season ticket to that pupil in every school in the county who does the most satisfactory work, the child to be picked by the teacher, and the tickets to be awarded through the agency of Prof. McClain.

BRINGS SUIT TO QUIET TITLE

H. B. Maynard, Jr., through attorneys Creamer, Creamer & Thompson, has filed action against Keziah C. Maynard and others to quiet title to certain property in this city.

The action was filed in Common pleas court Wednesday.

STREAKED WALLS.

Cold Surfaces Always Catch More Dust Than Hot Ones.

The reason that lath and plaster walls become streaked is explained by John Aitken, in Nature, as due to the tendency of hot air to deposit its dust on cold surfaces, and the colder the surface the weaker the power of resistance. So where the laths protect the plaster from the cold outside the plaster receives less deposit of dust than where it is between the laths.

Wherever a hot steam or water pipe comes through a wall a vertical streak of dust may be seen above it, due to the hot air driving the dust against the cold wall. Rooms that are heated by open grates are much less dusty than those heated by radiators because in the former the furniture is heated principally by radiation, and, being warmer than the air, it repels the particles of dust instead of catching them, while in the latter the air heats the furniture and in so doing deposits its dust on it.

Rooms lighted by electricity keep clean longer than those heated by gas simply because the light is almost cold. Mr. Aitken sums it up as follows: "Any surface hotter than the air keeps free from dust."

OFFICIALS WAGING WAR ON THE ALLEYS

Many municipal officials in Ohio are emphasizing the fact that alleys are public thoroughfares as much as the streets, and that the promiscuous throwing of broken bottles, rubbish, etc., into the alleys is as much a violation of an ordinance as if the rubbish were thrown into the streets.

Particular attention has been called to the crime committed by throwing broken glass or other dangerous material into alleys where it is liable to damage passing vehicles, such as automobiles.

In this city it is expected that when clean-up day arrives and the alleys are given a thorough cleaning by the adjoining property owners wherever the alley has been used for a dumping ground, greater efforts will be made to keep the alleys cleaned up and free from broken glass.

That certainly was some minstrel performance.

Billy Smith, who possesses an unusually fine voice, failed to do himself justice in the first verse of "When I Dream of Old Erin," but fully redeemed himself in the second verse and quartet chorus which brought one of the biggest encores of the evening.

Charles O. Updike was the very Prince of Interlocutors. In the costume, knickerbockers, frills and periwig of the Colonial gentleman, he was the personification of the part, taking his role with ease and ready wit.

It was the middle of the ensemble before the interlocutor announced the two end men stars, "Songbird Summers," and "Beef Bernhard," and there was something doing when they cakewalked in. Both were magnificent in scarlet and white striped suits, scarlet vests, the brightest of green ties and the biggest of diamonds.

That Summers was a "corker," a whole show in himself and became a local celebrity in one night. He was the typical, happy, rollicking minstrel artist, of truly professional attainments. A storm of applause after his song "The Little Bird That Rambled Right Along," brought him back again and again till he finally wound up with his own composition, "I've Got the Rheumatiz."

Louis Bernhard, who is really in the professional class, proved akin to a vaudeville entertainer, and was one high stepper.

The audience rose with the twenty seven performers, to wind up the ensemble with splendid volume in "The Star Spangled Banner," the folds of Old Glory waving in inspiration overhead.

The work of the chorus was throughout notably good, showing exceptional able training on the part of the musical director, Mr. Thos. P. Clancey, and the splendid orchestra, James J. Whelpley, leader, was one of the biggest factors in the success of the minstrels.

The first part was conducted in excellent professional style, the introductions of the end men made effectively and the ensemble well worked up to the climax.

The Olio was made up of entertaining specialty acts, introduced by Ray Smith in current topics.

Ralph Ott, who possesses rare talent as a whistler, delighted the audience with his whistling solos to orchestral accompaniment.

The Black Diamond quartet, Messrs W. J. Smith, Charles O. Updike, Edward O. Smith, Perce Pearce, proved immensely popular and C. E. Willson, "Military Coon," provoked many a laugh.

The closing number was a hit in musical extravaganza, "My Pickaninny Babe," tuneful and pretty in melody, beautifully staged and cleverly put on by a bunch of the burnt cork artists. It pictured a scene of the Old Cabin Home, with "Liza Jackson" (Wm. Smith) crooning lullabies to her pickaninny babe and her grey haired old husband (Rankin Paul) a second old Black Joe. Both did capital work in their roles.

A bunch, invited for a cake walk and dance, convulsed the audience with great make-ups and high doings. There was Mandy Lee (Sidney Katz), whose Tipperary bow was worth the price of admission, and who paired off with Parson Jones (Perce Pearce) in a cake walk and dance that introduced all kinds of "highfalutin" steps; there was Opal White (Louis Bernhard), a fetching black belle in large picture hat; Lucy Lee (Glenn Brock), a heart smasher, and Libby Johnson (Earl Binns) another charmer with three lady killers; Deacon Black (E. W. Harvey); Elder Brown (Wm. Turner); Rastus Hill (Frank Ellis) The entire company assisted behind the scenes.

The electric light effects were particularly beautiful in this little scene.

Throughout the performance the spot lights and electrical effects added greatly to the artistic success.

The stage decorations, elaborate and beautiful were furnished by Leo Katz & Co., and the piano furnished by Summers & Son. Sam Lydy, property man, deserves special mention for his well executed stage work and good handling of the property.

JAPS DENY ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH BASE

Turtle Bay Not Mined and No Attempt to Fortify or Hold Port Is Made, Say Japanese—U. S. Officials Regard Report As Absurd and See No Cause for Alarm—Japs Working to Salvage Stranded Warship.

By Associated Press.
Washington, April 15.—An official statement, authorized by the Japanese Embassy today, characterized as preposterous, reports that a naval base had been established at Turtle Bay, Lower California, and declared "there never has been any intention on the part of the Japanese government to locate a naval base, or occupy any territory on the west coast of Mexico."

Operations of the Japanese warships in Turtle Bay, embassy officials said, were solely for the purpose of salvaging the stranded cruiser Asama.

Dispatches from Los Angeles, telling of the gathering of foreign warships in the secluded Mexican haven, of a large camp ashore and of mines laid on the harbor, created no sensation among Washington officials.

A Japanese guard has been maintained in the bay and vicinity while the Japanese government has endeavored to make arrangements with the American wrecking companies to float the Asama.

Only seven of the dead have been identified. The other bodies are so badly mutilated that identification is almost impossible.

By Associated Press.
El Paso, Texas, April 15.—Official reports that the Obregon army at Celaya was being surrounded by Villa and Zapata troops, were confirmed today by private advices from the south.

TEUTONIC ALLIES HALT ADVANCE OF RUSSIANS

Enormous Losses Suffered By Czar's Horde of Fighters Telling on Offensive—Advance of Mile Made By French in Alsace.

By Associated Press.
London, April 15.—Failure of the Russian attempt to invade Hungary was announced today by the German War Office.

The statement is made that the efforts of the Russian army from Przemyśl, to force the Lupkow and east Dukla passes, was not successful, and that its attacks at several points along this front resulted in defeat with heavy losses. In consequence, it is said, the attacking power of Russia has lessened visibly.

Although official reports from Petrograd concede no such reverses, they indicate the Russian advance has been brought virtually to a halt.

Advices have been received in Rome from Salonika, that the intervention in the war of Roumania appears to be imminent. It is said the Roumanian army is well equipped and ready for instant action.

London, April 15.—Four attacks by the French are mentioned in the Berlin War Office statement today, and all are said to have resulted in failure.

The Paris statement, however, asserts that in the Ailly wood, a section of ground 400 yards long and 100 yards deep was won, and that in Alsace an advance of nearly one mile was made.

By Associated Press.
Chicago, April 15.—A strike of 16,000 union carpenters was to go into effect at the close of work today, as the result of the failure of union leaders to agree on a wage scale with the employers' association. The strike of the carpenters, it was said today, will throw out of work 100,000 men, by stopping work in other crafts.

GALLAGHER BILL IS VOTED DOWN

By Associated Press.
Columbus, April 15.—The House today killed the Gallagher bill, which would have virtually repealed the Green anti-screen law, by permitting miners and operators to make optional contracts on the run-of-mine basis. The bill had passed the Senate. It was fought by miners.

Supporters of the bill asserted it would settle the eastern Ohio strike, where 15,000 miners have been idle for more than a year.

Ensign of Rosemor farm near Jamestown, was celebrated at noon Wednesday at Glenwood, the beautiful country home of the bride's parents and was a brilliant event.

One hundred and fifty guests witnessed the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Wishon, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Jeffersonville. The home throughout had been beautifully decorated in a color scheme of yellow and white and the marriage ceremony took place before an altar of palms and ferns arranged in the large parlor. Preceding the ceremony Mr. Robert Bronson, of Blanchester, sang "O Promise Me" and during the entrance of the bride party the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss Belle Seibert of Jeffersonville at the piano with coronet accompaniment by Mrs. Mabel Marchant of near Jeffersonville. Opened Every Saturday Evening

A very large number of relatives and friends from Cleveland, Columbus and other cities throughout the state were present at the wedding Wednesday.—Xenia Republican.

Forty women enjoyed the meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society in the parlors of Grace church Wednesday afternoon, with Mesdames Dial, Blackmer, Inskeep, Lloyd, Gillespie, DeWees, Victor, Smith and Ab. McCoy.

Mrs. W. E. Ireland had charge of the opening devotional exercises. Mrs. Jesse Blackmer presented the subject "The Red Men and Social Order," in a fine paper.

"Sketches From Hiawatha," charmingly given by Mrs. E. G. Carpenter, were much enjoyed and also the pretty duet by Marjorie and Dorothy Sparks.

Mrs. Wheeler Bay read "The Indian's Interpretation of the Twenty-third Psalm." The brilliant "Sextette From Lucia" was given masterly piano interpretation by Mrs. B. E. Kelley, and evoked enthusiastic plaudits. Mrs. Kelley is a musician whose talents are thoroughly appreciated in the society.

Light refreshments were served during the social hour.

Mrs. A. A. Hyer very pleasantly entertained the S. C. Club Wednesday afternoon.

SPLENDID SUCCESS CROWNS BAZAAR

The Rebekah's Bazaar presented a scene of the utmost brilliancy and gaiety Wednesday night when throngs of people visited the beautiful booths, generously patronized them and found the social atmosphere thoroughly delightful.

All day people came and went from the Bazaar, but it was at night that pleasure reached its height and the Rebekahs had their hands full in looking after the crowd. Every one was enthusiastic over the decorations of the hall and over the various food products, fancy articles and different wares of the booths, the best of everything being offered to patrons.

A splendid program drew three or four hundred people to the large upper hall of the Temple, which was not adequate to the swarming crowd.

Miss Beulah Elliott opened the program with a very pretty piano solo. Mrs. Elmer Junk, always a fascinating reader, did extremely clever work in a colored dialect reading "Higher Culture in Dixie," strenuous applause bringing her back for an encore.

Mrs. J. L. Marchant delighted the audience with her unique accomplishment—a whistling solo.

A charming musical reading was given by Miss Luella Riley, with Miss Kidd accompanist. Brilliant piano solos were rendered by Miss Annette Stafford and Miss Mary Edge.

The special feature of the evening was the fancy drill put on by the drill team of fifty Rebekahs. It was splendidly executed under the direction of Capt. Allen, floor manager, and Mr. R. J. McLean, lecturer, and the team received a storm of complimentary applause.

The Rebekahs served a large number with dinners and lunches during the past two days.

QUESTION THE POWER OF COMPTROLLER

Washington, April 15.—Both sides in the struggle between the Riggs National bank and Comptroller Williams and Secretary McAdoo are getting ready for the fight in the courts, which will begin tomorrow.

Evidence clearly indicates that the fight already is assuming proportions far beyond the mere relations between this powerful Washington bank and the treasury officials. Bankers in all parts of the country are manifesting a keen interest in the proceedings.

The big question which is overshadowing all personal controversies between the Riggs bank officers and the treasury officials is that of the powers of the comptroller under the law. It is said that many national banks, particularly those in the big cities in the east, have been chafing for months under the demands which have been made upon them by Comptroller Williams for reports and information in regard to their affairs. The power of the comptroller to make these demands has been questioned by many bankers, but the matter never has been passed on by the courts. The proceedings begun by the Riggs bank officers will therefore test out this

CEMENT, LIME, CEMENT BLOCKS AND AGRICULTURAL LIME For Sale by A.C. Henkle

General question for the banks of the country.

Two sections of the national banking act which are up for interpretation in the present court proceedings are sections 5211 and 5213. The former section provides that every national bank shall make to the comptroller of the currency not less than five reports during each year, according to the form which may be prescribed by him. These reports shall exhibit in detail the resources and liabilities of the bank on a date specified by him. The same section contains this grant of power: "The comptroller shall also have power to call for special reports from any particular association whenever in his judgment the same are necessary to a full and complete knowledge of its condition."

Section 5213 relates to the penalties which shall be assessed for failure to transmit the reports required by law.

The Troubles of Villa

The people who confidently believed that the ragged and irresponsible followers of Villa, the former Mexican outlaw, now turned patriot, would have an easy time in forcing the followers of Carranza to abandon their attempt to prevent Villa becoming dictator of Mexico are being given a genuine surprise.

Thus far the fortunes of war have smiled upon the followers of Carranza who, though a thoroughly impractical man of very limited ability, is vastly superior in morals and intention to the ex-bandit who formerly acted as commander of the Carranza forces.

It does not seem probable now that permanent peace can come to Mexico with Villa in authority or in a position to command any considerable following.

Villa has no idea of government and neither suggests nor adopts any plans for the permanent establishment of the civil authorities. He is a bandit by instinct and by profession. He believes firmly in a government of might and has no higher ambition than to attain an autocratic rulership over the masses of Mexican people and to maintain that leadership by the sword for the purpose of plunder.

With Villa eliminated the prospect for the rebuilding of Mexico would be far brighter. Carranza has an aim higher than the gaining of personal advantage. His conduct warrants the belief that he would be sincere in his efforts to bring about lasting peace and to let the Mexican people rule.

The decisive and overwhelming defeat of Villa would be cheering news to the world, especially to the United States.

Changing the Divorce Laws

The legislature of the state, has fallen in line with most of its predecessors, by tinkering with the divorce laws.

At present, the laws of Ohio provide ten grounds upon which a divorce may be obtained in Ohio. On Tuesday the Senate passed the Moore bill, striking from the statutes nine of those grounds, leaving only one legal ground upon which the marriage contract may be annulled.

The measure will now go to the House, where it is expected violent opposition will manifest itself and, perhaps, bring about the defeat of the measure or a material change in its provisions.

The Senate is to be congratulated on recognizing that the divorce evil in Ohio has grown to alarming proportions and realizing that if society is to be preserved, something must be done to reduce the number of divorces granted.

It is questionable, however, whether the Senate in passing the Moore bill has hit upon the proper remedy.

If divorcees are to be granted at all, there is surely more than one cause which would justify a dissolution of the marriage contract. The divorce evil has grown not because of the number of grounds which the law specifies as sufficient to warrant the granting of a divorce, but because of the ease with which parties who, for some trivial reason, have grown dissatisfied with the marriage relation, can satisfy a court of the existence of one of the legal grounds for divorcees.

It is the perpetual grind of the well oiled machinery of the divorce courts which is the root of the evil. The tendency of so many judges to regard the divorce decree as a consequence to follow as a matter of course the filing of the petition, that is causing society to become alarmed.

Well may society be alarmed at the growth of the divorce evil, but it will be harmful rather than helpful for the law making body to mistake the remedy.

Industrialism Unprepared Leads Inevitably to War

By RICHMOND P. HOBSON, Former Congressman From Alabama

FOR America and all other nations as for all living organisms the first law is self preservation.

An enemy could raid our mainland coasts, occupy and levy upon our great cities without any chance whatever of effective resistance, destroy our navy and shipbuilding yards, arsenals, shipping and public works. IT IS VAIN TO IMAGINE OUR CITIES WOULD BE SPARED AFTER THE EXPERIENCE OF CITIES ABROAD. IT IS VAIN TO IMAGINE THE MEAGER LAND FORCES AVAILABLE COULD MAKE ANY SERIOUS RESISTANCE.

Our government will have to be maintained in the face of antagonistic institutions of the old world, which menace our institutions and our homes, our property rights on land and sea.

In a fair competition in times of peace militarism must go down, but industrialism unprepared would as inevitably fall in war.

IN THE INTEREST OF HUMANITY THAT LIES UPON THE SURVIVAL OF INDUSTRIALISM, AMERICA, WITH HER VAST RESOURCES, SHOULD MAKE ADEQUATE PREPARATIONS TO SAFEGUARD HER OWN PEOPLE ALWAYS AGAINST THE SPIRIT OF MILITARISM.

Poetry For Today

KEEP SMILING, BUT—
It will not suffice to keep smiling;
It will not quite serve to be gay.
It's never enough to sing out: "I'm the stuff!"
I'll win—if you give me my way."
You've got to stand up to disaster,
Defeated, your courage renew;
Then say with a grin that means business: "I'll win
In spite of the worst you can do!"

The world loves a smiler — that's granted;
But sometimes the world, without fear,
Is quick to surmise that his anger won't rise,
So hands him a poke in the ear!
Then if he keeps buoyantly smiling
Nor takes in his humor a tuck,
The world will declare: "Since he seems not to care,
I'll swat him another for luck."

Keep grinning! Oh, yes, be as cheery
As ever you wish to the while;
But show that beneath is a full set of teeth
To back up and bolster the smile.
Remind the old world that you're ready
To fight to the end of the war;
The world then—no myth! — you will get to smile with you
That might have smiled at you before.

TOUGH OLD IRON.

The Famous Pillar in the Temple of Kutab Minar at Delhi.

There seems to be no doubt that the metal produced previous to the introduction of modern methods was superior in its resistance to corrosion to the present day product. I have seen various iron articles, especially nails, which showed far less rust after an exposure of a hundred years or so than the modern variety does in a few weeks.

One article, an old flintlock pistol, was especially interesting. It was found by a friend in a patch of woods in Vermont and had evidently laid there for many years, since a piece of newspaper with the date 1796 had been used as wadding in loading it. All the iron parts were rather rough and pitted and covered with rust, but the arm was in surprisingly good shape considering the conditions to which it had been subjected. The spring, hammer and trigger were still capable of performing their functions, and very little effort was required to put the old weapon in decidedly presentable condition.

Perhaps one of the most noted of the iron articles which have come down to us from antiquity is the famous pillar in the temple of Kutab Minar at Delhi, India. This old shaft, which projects some thirty feet above the surface of the ground, was erected about 900 B. C. Today it shows little trace of rust, although it has had no protective coating other than that which the atmosphere itself has formed upon it.—L. C. Wilson in Engineering Magazine.

"Pardon our protest," they said gently, "but, perforce, we must disagree with you. In our humble judgment the ball was in the hands of the baseman one-fifth of a second before the player reached base."

"I regret that I must disagree with you, gentlemen," said the umpire. "I must accept the evidence of my own senses, but I assure you that only a stern sense of duty compels me to refuse your courteous request for a change in my decision."

Of course this never happened, but as the product of a highly sensitized imagination it certainly ranks in the forefront.—Philadelphia Ledger.

This is interesting news to Columbus stockholders, who yesterday received their quarterly 1½ per cent dividend on the preferred stock. The output of the present plant, combined with the new equipment, has been sold out for several months to come. With natural resources that are said to be unequalled, together with a coal mining property south of Zanesville that furnishes more coal than necessary for the operation of the plants, officials are pleased at the prospects. NON-TAXATION OF MORTGAGES IS PROPOSAL

Columbus, O., April 15.—The legislature is to vote on the question of exempting mortgages from taxation. The resolution of Representative Morris of Van Wert, submitting such an amendment to the constitution, was voted yesterday by the taxation committee to be reported to the house calendar. Though reported without recommendation, and 24 hours after the committee had tabled it, there is strong support for it among members on both sides of the house who wish to afford the people opportunity to do away with double taxation—the taxation on the property and the taxation of the mortgage on the property.

By one theory, the proposal would exempt practically all public and private bonds, for a bond, secured by the faith and credit of a city, has back of it all the property of the city, and in case of default the bondholder could seize all the property necessary to satisfy his claim. But it is said the proposal covers only such bonds as are secured by an actually executed and filed mortgage.

As the committee has agreed to amend the resolution the exemption will apply to "all notes hereafter issued which are secured by mortgage on real or chattel mortgage property, bearing not to exceed 5 per cent interest."

The house has adopted the Purdum resolution paving the way for an amendment to exempt Ohio public bonds, and so the voters may have opportunity to vote on each proposition separately.

Undoubtedly the Morris resolution covers not only real estate mortgage notes but also railroad and other corporate bonds which are secured by mortgage on the property of the corporation.

OFFENDERS MOVE THE LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library is now located in the District Assessor's office, first floor of the court house.

The transfer was made by train riders, under the direction of Judge Allen, and the last load of the vast number of volumes in the library was carefully placed in position in the basement about eleven o'clock Wednesday night, after which the weary men were locked up for the night and released Thursday morning.

The men were placed upon their honor, were not guarded, and it is safe to say that they worked harder than for many a day.

Two of the men were Hungarians, and to the query of "why aren't you over in Europe fighting?" they instantly replied: "we no want fight!"

The eight men were picked up by Detective Kennedy when asked by Judge Allen if he could furnish him a few train riders to do some work. "Still plenty more fellows if you want them" said Kennedy as he marched the last of the eight up for inspection.

In all probability the room occupied by the library will later be utilized by the District Assessor, and the library will fill the rooms now used by the Assessor.

PICTORIAL TRIUMPH AT PALACE THEATER

"Neptune's Daughter" verified its reputation as a marvelous work in photo-play art and drew throngs of people, hundreds of whom were unable to gain admittance, to the Palace Theater, Wednesday night, as well as good matinee audiences.

Enchanting as are the magnificent scenes of the play with coral reefs, marine grottos, semi-tropical verdure, expanses of ocean and exciting as is the fairy plot, in which mermaids vie with mortals, the great wonder of the photo-drama is the famous "Diving Venus," Annette Kellermann.

Miss Kellermann's swimming and diving as the Lorelei of the play entranced the audience and created wonder akin to that which has been aroused in her notable vaudeville work.

These superb pictures were taken amidst the tropical luxuriance of the Bermuda Islands.

The last performance is tonight.

YOUTHS FACE CHARGE OF CHICKEN STEALING

Arthur and Orville Brown, brothers aged about 20 and 18 years, respectively, were arrested by the police Wednesday afternoon on a charge of chicken stealing.

The arrest was made by Chief of Police Moore and Officer Baughn, who went to the home of Al Denner, on Elm Street, where the young men have been staying. A sale of eight chickens, netting $4.55, at the Brownell packing house Wednesday morning, led to the arrest.

When brought before the mayor together, the young men refused to talk. Examined separately, Arthur Brown admitted that the poultry had been stolen, while his brother stoutly maintained they were not. They were taken to the county jail where they will have plenty of time to think it over.

B. Y. P. U. RALLY AT BAPTIST CHURCH

The Young People's work is always one of the most interesting branches of the work of the Clinton Baptist County Association, and the B. Y. P. U. rally of Wednesday night drew a capacity audience to the First Baptist church.

The excellent program offered was a satisfactory aftermath to a full day devoted to the Sunday school work of the association.

Rev. L. A. Wood, of Chillicothe, presided. Prof. D. C. Gilmore, of Granville, a fluent and polished speaker, recently returned from missionary work in Birmah, and full of the needs of that country, gave an interesting talk on "The Young People of Birmah." The talk covered the manners and customs of the people and their growing earnestness in matters that pertain to the Christian religion.

An excellent address, full of inspiration to young people was given by Rev. F. A. Detweiler, of Dayton, the subject, "The Visions of Christian Youth." The speaker held up ideals of beauty, impressing upon the young people the necessity of gaining the highest vision in order to attain efficiency.

Fine musical numbers added to the evening's pleasure. These included Rev. W. M. Warjon, of Greenfield, a vocal solo; Mr. James Kneisley, violin solo and Male Quartet, the singers Messrs Burch, Hicks, Evans and Davenport.

The different unions made good reports.

Today the Woman's Missionary branch of the association is holding session, with a large number of delegates in attendance and able speakers taking up the special work of the societies.

destruction being employed in the world's greatest conflict which is still shaking the entire universe as it never has been disturbed.

The suffering, the ruin, life in the trenches and in caves; the awful toll in human lives; the hardships endured by both man and beast; the enormous weapons, including the monster "caterpillar" howitzers of the Germans and the vicious 75 millimeter guns of the French; armored trains, automobiles and scores of field pieces, in action—all are clearly shown, together with thrilling cavalry charges, skirmishes, bayonet charges, the blowing up of bridges, bombardment of numerous cities, and a thousand and one other interesting and instructive features of the big war.

The pictures are pronounced foremost among the most educational and interesting movies ever shown in the city.

BIG CATTLE SALES IN FAYETTE CO.

Swift & Company's representative, Frank H. Roberts, of Marion, Ohio, was in this territory last week and succeeded in buying a number of choice heavy cattle. Among those of whom he purchased cattle was Os Briggs, of Washington C. H., from whom he purchased twelve car loads, averaging fifteen hundred and forty-five pounds, and for which he paid eight and one-quarter cents per pound.

Among other purchases he bought three carloads, 48 head, of strictly fancy Hereford yearlings of Reuben J. Holdren, of Good Hope, at eight and one-quarter cents. He also bought one car load of very prime short horn yearlings, 23 head, of Mr. Douglass, of Sabina, for which he gave eight dollars and fifteen cents per hundred.

Swift & Company will be represented in this locality by Mr. Roberts in the future, and he expects to buy some of Fayette county's products as he says he is convinced that Fayette has a number of good cattle feeders.

“Me for ‘GETS-IT’
When I Have Corns”

Simple As Saying It; Never Fails.

It does your heart good to see how easily and quickly any corn comes out when you put “GETS-IT” on! And then when you’ve gone along for years trying everything, when you’ve sat up nights wrapping up your toes in bandages, smearing on salves that rub off or swell up the corn, pasting on cotton plasters that make corns pop-eyed, slaughtering your toes with razors, jabbing them with knives and prying to the quick with scissors—and then you put on 2 drops of “GETS-IT” and see your corn fall right off—why, it just looks like a miracle. Just try it. “GETS-IT” never fails. No pain, no trouble. Use it for any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

“GETS-IT” is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

Sold in Washington C. H. and recommended as the world’s best corn cure by Brown’s Drug Store, and Frank Christopher’s. adv

NEW PLAN TO FINANCE WAR

London, April 15.—The treasury has a new plan for financing the war, according to an announcement in the Official Gazette. There will be an unlimited issue of treasury bills instead of, as has been the case, a limited issue of them from time to time. The Bank of England is now empowered to offer treasury bills daily for either three, six or nine months, the bills to bear a fixed rate of interest to be determined from time to time by the treasury. The new plan will steady the market and will provide the government with all necessary resources for a considerable period, in the opinion of the bankers. It will also obviate the necessity of another war loan for some time.

CIVIL SERVICE
BILL PASSED
BY THE HOUSE

Columbus, April 15.—The house passed the Barnes-Moore civil service bill and the senate put through the Wickline election code. Both are administration measures.

The Wickline bill, which is yet to pass the house, simplifies the election machinery by reducing from four to two the membership of all the county election boards, except those in Cuyahoga and Hamilton counties, and by eliminating the two clerks in each precinct in the state. It simplifies the duties of the voters by abolishing after 1916 periodical registration in cities by substituting a permanent registration by card system, and by doing away with the double primary in presidential election years. These duties are further simplified by the Wise bill, which the senate passed, which provides for absent voting by electors who are away on election day. Senator Wickline estimated that his bill would effect an annual saving in expense of $250,000, and that an additional $250,000 would be saved once in four years by doing away with the second primary in presidential years.

Civil Service Bill Passed.
If the senate concurs in house amendments to the civil service bill and ninety days elapse without the filing of a referendum petition, at that time, the positions held by thousands of state, county and city employees who are holding on by virtue of noncompetitive examinations will be vacant, but these employees will be retained as provisional appointees for a time to be fixed by the state and municipal service commissions. This interim, it is expected, will be availed of by the commission to conduct competitive examinations open to these employees and to anyone else who chooses to enter.

The largest addition to the already liberal exemptions made by the law of 1912 is the exemption of practically all the positions in the eighteen state institutions under the state board of administration, and practically all positions in county and city penal, benevolent and charitable institutions. The institutional exemptions include superintendents, officers, teachers, investigators, matrons and attendants. Other new exemptions are heads of departments appointed by the head of a principal department, three assistants and a stenographer.

The house adopted an amendment offered by Barnes to make more certain that police and fire chiefs were left under civil service protection, and the bill gave these chiefs and all other municipal employees, if dismissed, suspended or reduced in pay, an appeal to the local commission.

Four Democrats, Kohl, Lustig, Stivers and Wintermute, voted for the civil service bill, which empowers the governor to appoint a strictly bipartisan state commission of two members at $4,000 for two and four years, respectively, with a secretary at $2,000, and mayors of cities to appoint commissions of three members for two, four and six years, respectively, on the expiration of the terms of the present municipal commissioners.

Optometrists Win.
Optometrists won their fight to have their profession eliminated from the Platt-Elkins bill, which seeks to regulate every sort of medical profession, from corn doctors to practitioners of “Swedish movement,” by requiring them to be licensed by the state medical board. An amendment striking optometrists from the bill was offered by Senator Fellinger of Cleveland, and adopted by a vote of 22 to 9.

A bitter fight developed in the senate when an attempt was made to postpone indefinitely the Sutter short train bill. Labor representatives won by putting down the motion by a vote of 19 to 11.

The senate taxation committee recommended for passage the Parrott-Whittemore tax decentralizer, abolishing the office of district assessor and providing for the election of ward and township assessors. The measure has passed the house.

The legislature is to vote on the question of exempting mortgages from taxation. The resolution of Representative Morris of Van Wert, submitting such an amendment to the constitution, was voted by the taxation committee to be reported to the house calendar.

Every day has its advertising opportunities and every merchant should know the opportunity when it comes to him.

OHIO BRIEFS

Teacher Saves Pupils.

Springfield, O., April 15.—Fire destroyed the Pleasant Grove school building, several miles south of this city. Miss Mary Bazel, teacher, was the last to leave the burning building, leading two of the smaller children. She had just got outside when the roof fell in. Miss Bazel had previously marched the older children out.

Tin Workers’ Wages Reduced.

St. Clairsville, O., April 15.—The American Sheet and Tin Plate company met the reduction in wages given independent manufacturers by the union by reducing the wages of its men who are not organized 6 per cent in the tin mill and 11 per cent in sheet mills. The new wages are effective tomorrow.

Shot and Beaten to Death.

McArthur, O., April 15.—Frank Faulkner, thirty, was shot and beaten to death at the home of W. A. Meek, near New Plymouth. It is said that Faulkner had been warned to stay away from the house. The authorities have not yet determined who killed Faulkner.

Auto Turns Turtle.

Dayton, O., April 15.—One man was killed and three others injured when their automobile turned turtle about two miles north of Sharonville. Roy Myers was instantly killed and Edward Ryan, Charles Achey and George Mann were seriously injured.

To Meet at Bucyrus.

Bellefontaine, O., April 15.—The Marion presbytery selected Bucyrus as the place for the next meeting. The presbytery recommended that trustees of Wooster university reconsider their decision to conduct a normal school.

BRITISH ARMY
MAKES MISTAKE

London, April 15.—Official confirmation of the report that the heavy casualties suffered by the British at Neuve Chapelle March 10 were due to a mistake committed by one of the British commanders was obtained when a long dispatch from Field Marshal Sir John French reviewing the fighting at that point was given out by the war office. The British commander specifically states that “considerable delay occurred after the capture of Neuve Chapelle. The infantry was disorganized by the violent nature of the attack.” Further in the dispatch he says: “I am of the opinion that this delay would not have occurred and the clearly expressed order of the commander of the first army been more carefully observed.”

The fact that British artillery fire was to some extent the cause of the heavy British losses at Neuve Chapelle is now being hinted at in the newspapers. These accounts say that the artillery was directed to fire at certain points, but owing to deranged field telephone service and to fog, the fire was not raised when the British troops took the first German line.

General French reports the British losses totaling 12,811 in the three days’ fighting at Neuve Chapelle as follows: Killed, 190 officers, 2,337 men; wounded, 359 officers, 8,174 other ranks; missing, 23 officers, 1,728 men.

HOW TO INVEST MONEY.

Exercise the Same Care You Would In Buying a House.

One who has money to invest should know something of what he is buying. Otherwise he is a mere gambler and would have a better chance to win if he played a game of cards for money. All gambling is reprehensible, though it must be conceded that speculation in a sense is gambling. But this might be said of the purchase of real estate or any commodity of a changeable value.

Let the investor make a study of business conditions. Watch the earnings of the corporations and the railways as reported in the newspapers. Note the trend of trade. Observe the transactions in prominent securities on the Stock Exchange and have knowledge of what is going on. Exercise the same care that you would in buying a horse, an automobile, a wagon or a house.

Fortunes have been made by those who have pursued this method, and fortunes lost by those who have simply gone into speculation as if they were throwing dice. I well recall the era of railroad and industrial disturbance over twenty years ago, when nobody wanted to buy stocks and everybody wanted to sell. Those who picked up the “cripples,” as they were then called, and held them until prosperity revived, made handsome profits. In some instances realizing more than ten times what they paid.—Jasper in Leslie’s.

Missed Her.

Pall—Did you hear that last joke at the vaudeville last night?
Mall—No. I left before she sang.—Gargoyle.

Tobacco.

Tobacco injures many a man. Its use is surely not a joke. And yet it’s rather better than the substitutes we sometimes smoke.—Washington Star.

Iron makes it the most Economical Roofing

Armco Iron will never replace steel in everything. Steel is of inestimable service. We could not get along without it, but it has no place in ROOFING, for it cannot resist rust. The only economical roof is one of PURE IRON.

It resists rust because it is PURE. Don’t let anyone sell you steel and claim it is pure iron. Every sheet of Armco Roofing bears our trade mark. It means protection to you. ZEPPELINS
MAKE RAID
IN ENGLAND

London, April 15.—There was a Zeppelin raid on Newcastle, north coast of England, and half a dozen of the nearby towns last night. The airship came out of the darkness over the North sea, sweeping a streak of daylight into the night before it.

Newcastle was the first city attacked. From it the Zeppelin airship turned to the north and slipped over Blythe, Tyne, Wall’s End, Seatonburn, Crumlington and other small places. Eight bombs were dropped on Blythe.

One of the bombs dropped by the Zeppelin fell on a railroad in Wallsend, in Northumberland, narrowly missing a train filled with passengers bound for Newcastle. Several other trains were held up pending the airship’s leaving the neighborhood. The night was dark, without the slightest wind, and all conditions were favorable for the raider.

Full inquiry shows that no loss of life or serious personal injury resulted from the Zeppelin raid and that although several houses were damaged, the material loss was not very heavy.

Newcastle is about 470 miles from Cuxhaven, where there is a Zeppelin base, the nearest one, in fact, to the English coast, and it is from that base, in all probability, that the raiders set out upon the attack. London is only 150 miles from Newcastle.

HOT FIGHTING IN FRANCE

Germans Reported to Be Falling Back at One Point.

Paris, April 15.—Heavy fighting has occurred on several points of the line within the last twenty-four hours, notably near Berry-au-Bac, southwest of Neufchatel, and in the St. Mihiel section.

In the district of Berry-au-Bac, where the French are forcing the enemy back gradually toward Neufchatel, the French met with temporary success, then lost the trench they had occupied and finally won another in the same neighborhood.

The Germans are making desperate efforts to stop the French movement against the St. Mihiel wedge, which threatens to cut off the troops in that section from their base at Metz.

Three Cracksmen Caught.

Columbus, April 15.—Three yeggs who blew the safe in the Diamond Tire and Rubber company’s office at an early hour today were captured shortly afterward by the police.

Diver Reaches Sunken Submarine.

Honolulu, April 15.—Chief Gunner’s Mate Frank Criley went 288 feet under water here and walked along the top of the submarine P-4, which disappeared March 27. The depth is said by naval officers to be a world’s diving record. He found the P-4 lying on a smooth, sandy bottom, with no coral growths to impede hoisting operations.

D. T. & I. CARS HIT TROLLEY

Detroit, April 15.—In a collision between a Detroit city streetcar and a string of freight cars pushed by a switch engine on the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton railroad, fifteen persons were killed and about twenty injured. Most of the dead are foreigners whose homes were beyond the western limits of the city. Four of them are women.

The streetcar, one of the largest in service, was heavily loaded with passengers. As the car approached the railroad crossing it stopped and the conductor ran ahead to see if the track was clear. He signaled the motorman to wait, but apparently the latter, who is said to have been inexperienced, misunderstood his meaning. He applied the power and the car ran rapidly down an incline and on to the railroad tracks.

A string of freight cars being pushed by a switch engine struck the streetcar fairly in the middle, smashing it almost to bits. The wreckage was pushed along 100 feet, several of the dead and injured dropping along the street before the train was brought to a standstill. Others were crushed in the splintered mass of steel and wood, and it was several hours before they could be extricated and their exact number known.

As the dead were taken from the debris they were laid in a row along the street and covered with canvas, pending the arrival of the coroner. Later they were removed to undertaking establishments.

Many private automobiles rushed to the scene of the accident and these, together with the ambulances which responded to the call for help, carried the injured to the hospitals. Several of those so removed were so badly hurt it is said they may die.

At the place where the accident occurred the railroad tracks occupy a narrow street. On one corner of the intersection stood a grocery store and on the opposite side the Delray station of the Detroit, Lima and Ironton railroad. Both these buildings were struck by the streetcar as it was carried along in front of the freight and partially demolished. No occupant of either structure was injured.

THE BIG LEAGUE SEASON OPENS AUSPICIOUSLY

New York, April 15.—Large crowds witnessed the opening games yesterday in all major league cities. President Wilson, who witnessed the contest between the Senators and Yankees, began the game by throwing out the first ball to the umpire. Pittsburgh Pennock of the Athletics pitched a one-hit game against the Boston Americans. Detroit tossed the opening game to Cleveland by miserable fielding. Cobb missed his first fielding chance, miffing a high fly in the first inning. Pittsburgh made a runaway event of the opener in Cincinnati, outplaying the Reds at all points. Chicago White Sox and St. Louis Browns battled thirteen innings before a decision was reached. The world's champions were shut out by the Phillies, while the New York Giants smothered the Brooklyn.

Swat the Murderous Fly; He Is Mankind's Arch Enemy

PSHAW! you will say. Pshaw! How absurd! Harmless insects of no particular importance! Now, if it should be volves or great rats, even—

Would it astonish you, would it shock you, to be told that thousands of children are slain by flies each year? Would you be surprised to learn that in one city of the United States over 7,000 persons lost their lives from intestinal diseases believed by certain scientists to be traceable to the "harmless insect" that is now buzzing on your windowpane or against your screen door? Suppose it were solemnly stated by scientists of international repute that anterior poliomyelitis, or infant paralysis, of which one hospital in New York alone received and treated hundreds of cases in one recent summer, can be carried by one of the kinds of flies you pass by as of "no particular importance." What would you say then? And it is true, every word of it. Walk into your kitchen and observe the number of flies there. Are there a hundred, a thousand? You had better find a conflagration as you open the door, for its possibilities of disaster are not much greater, says Dr. Fense in Good House-keeping.

It is recognized that any reform must begin with the individual and grow from him or her. The fly campaign has been successful only in a very moderate degree, because 95 per cent of the hundred million among whom we live are asleep to the danger or refuse to take it seriously. The slumbering infant, the aged parent, the romping youth, the rugged athlete, all tomorrow may be victims of the filthy pest.

Span the Way from Trouble

Goodyear tires have bridged the way for countless men to less trouble and tax. And those men, by their endorsement, brought our last year's output up to 1,479,883 tires.

The only reason, as you must know, is that Goodyears average best. And that's how they are bound to win you.

INCENDIARY BLAZE DESTROYS COAL TIPPLE

Steubenville, O., April 15.—An incendiary fire destroyed the tipple of the Dexter Coal company at Brilliant, where 135 miners were thrown out of work recently. An attempt also was made to burn a schoolhouse near by.

Armed with a subpoena a deputy sheriff went out to serve it on a wealthy and extremely snobbish manufacturer, whom he met at the gate of the manufacturer's country home. The great man was in an automobile, accompanied by two ladies, and as the process server handed over the papers he politely raised his hat. The other assumed a democratic manner. "You don't need to take off your hat to me, young man," he said. "I took off my hat not to you, sir," was the answer. "But to the ladies with you."—Argonaut.

CORNS LIFT OUT

Dr. Hunt's New Penetration Method Loosens Them Root and All. FULL SIZE BOX 10c.

No corn ever went so easily, quickly or surely as by Dr. Hunt's new way—the penetration principle of permanently curing corns. Dr. Hunt has devoted a life of study to this one subject. The final result is this entirely different method—a method by which corns GO forever in two short days.

Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure comes in a simple plaster form. Six plasters in a box. Cut plaster size of corn and apply it. Doesn't "bulk" like clumsy pads. Contains no caustic to smart or cause blood-poisoning. No paring necessary. Wear any shoes. Ease comes the moment you apply this new remedy. You walk in comfort. You forget your feet. In two days corn lifts out.

Nothing like Dr. Hunt's New Corn Cure has been known before. It is an entirely new principle. Millions of packages have already been sold. Cures any corn. They must go.

And the price is only ten cents a box. Guaranteed or money back. That's very little to pay for foot comfort. Sold by druggists and shoe dealers everywhere. Cure your corns once and for all, this new way. If any difficulty in securing, send 10 cents in stamps for a box, to American Chemical Company, Sidney, Ohio.

CHAUTAUQUA IS TO BE HUMMER

The Washington Chautauqua—or generally speaking—the Fayette county chautauqua, is to be held this year July 18-19-20-21-22-23 and 24th, and a much better line of attractions has been secured than the good ones offered last year.

One of the leading attractions on the program is Creator's Band, one of the most famous bands in the United States, and which is composed of some 60 pieces. The cost to the guarantors has been much more than last year, and the patrons of the chautauqua are assured of something that will please every holder of tickets.

Prof. Wm. McClain, who is chairman of the Chautauqua Committee, has the distribution of one season ticket to that pupil in every school in the county who does the most satisfactory work, the child to be picked by the teacher, and the tickets to be awarded through the agency of Prof. McClain.

The action was filed in Common pleas court Wednesday.

STREAKED WALLS.

Cold Surfaces Always Catch More Dust Than Hot Ones.

The reason that lath and plaster walls become streaked is explained by John Aitken, in Nature, as due to the tendency of hot air to deposit its dust on cold surfaces, and the colder the surface the weaker the power of resistance. So where the laths protect the plaster from the cold outside the plaster receives less deposit of dust than where it is between the laths.

Wherever a hot steam or water pipe comes through a wall a vertical streak of dust may be seen above it, due to the hot air driving the dust against the cold wall. Rooms that are heated by open grates are much less dusty than those heated by radiators because in the former the furniture is heated principally by radiation, and, being warmer than the air, it repels the particles of dust instead of catching them, while in the latter the air heats the furniture and in so doing deposits its dust on it.

Rooms lighted by electricity keep clean longer than those heated by gas simply because the light is almost cold. Mr. Aitken sums it up as follows: "Any surface hotter than the air keeps free from dust."

are public thoroughfares as much as the streets, and that the promiscuous throwing of broken bottles, rubbish, etc., into the alleys is as much a violation of an ordinance as if the rubbish were thrown into the streets.

Particular attention has been called to the crime committed by throwing broken glass or other dangerous material into alleys where it is liable to damage passing vehicles, such as automobiles.

In this city it is expected that when clean-up day arrives and the alleys are given a thorough cleaning by the adjoining property owners wherever the alley has been used for a dumping ground, greater efforts will be made to keep the alleys cleaned up and free from broken glass.
